You can make a real difference to a talented young musician by making a donation to the Kenneth Loveland Gift.

Dear

For those who care about our cultural life, there are few things more rewarding than helping a talented artist, develop his or her career. The period of completing advanced studies and launching out into the competitive artistic world is a critical one in an artist's life. By supporting The Kenneth Loveland Gift, you will be helping to achieve something that, unlike many donations or sponsorships, will literally last a lifetime.

The Gift will, through financial awards, help singers and instrumentalists who are completing advanced or post-graduate studies. The Awards are open to students of any nationality, but overseas students must use the Award in the U.K. Even a small regular gift will help to ensure that we continue to help these young musicians.

Thank you.
